[Price Six-pence.]

St. James's, October 17.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Somerſet, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable Earl Poulett, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County, to the Right Honourable the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace aſſembled at their General Quarter Seſſions, holden on the 6th Day of October, 1761, and other Gentlemen of the County of Somerſet.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Nuptials; an Event which muſt truly rejoice the Hearts of your faithful People, becauſe it promiſes a Completion of Your own, and their Felicity.

The Choice your Majeſty has made of an Illuſtrious Princeſs, who is zealouſly attached to that Faith, which her Anceſtors have always joined in defending, is a freſh Inſtance of your paternal Care and Sollicitude, both for the Civil and Religious Liberties of Great Britain, and of Europe.

And your Majeſty has ſhewn that you have in View the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings we enjoy under your Auſpices, by taking this Step to tranſmit your own Virtues to a long Line of Deſcendants, who, we hope, will rule over theſe Kingdoms to the lateſt Poſterity.

Your Majeſty will permit us likewiſe to expreſs the Joy we felt on that auſpicious Day, when for Fidelity you promiſed us Protection. Your Majeſty adds a Luſtre to the Diadem, which was then placed on your Royal Brow; may you wear it with Eaſe, as you will with Dignity; and may it render you ever glorious here, until you exchange it for an immortal one hereafter.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Dorſet, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Shafteſbury, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Dorſet, aſſembled at the Quarter Seſſions at Bridport in the County aforeſaid.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of of the County of Dorſet, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majeſty our Congratulations.

Stimulated by the warmeſt Gratitude for the Bleſſings of your Government, animated by the livelieſt Joy on your Majeſty's Marriage, we have regretted that we could not be among the foremoſt of your Subjects, to teſtify our Gratitude and our Joy: But we come now, with Hearts glowing with the moſt ardent Wiſhes for your Majeſty's, and your Royal Conſort's Happineſs. With Hearts, as all your People's are, entirely your Majeſty's own. To the Throne we look up, and ſee the Dignity of a King. In your Majeſty's Mind we view the Juſtice, the Mercy, the Probity, and Benevolence of a Patriot King. We behold an Attention to the Security of our Conſtitution, which cannot be exceeded by any of your Subjects. We ſee a Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, which is not to be paralleled by any other Princes. A Zeal, founded on the Knowledge and Practice of it, and guided by Moderation. A Zeal, which ſhould be an Example, even where the Proteſtant Religion is flouriſhing; which will be a Support where it is declining. To this we are indebted for the happy Choice which your Majeſty has made; for a Queen adorned with the moſt amiable Virtues; for an Union, which opens a Proſpect of tranſmitting our Happineſs to our Poſterity. May this Union produce a Race of Princes, formed, like their Royal Father, on the firmeſt Baſis for a King, the Principles of Virtue and of Liberty! May they keep His bright Example in their View! And may they, like Him, diffuſe all the Bleſſings of a mild and ſteady Government among a brave, an happy, and a grateful People!

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Lord Viſcount Royſton, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty the ſincereſt Expreſſions of our Duty, Zeal, and Affection, upon ſo important an Occaſion as that of your Majeſty's auſpicious Marriage. No Event which concerns your Majeſty, can be indifferent to your faithful Subjects; but they take a moſt particular Share of Joy in your happy Union with a Princeſs, who has every Circumſtance to recommend Her to your Majeſty's Choice, and to your People's Eſteem and Veneration; deſcended as She is, from an illuſtrious Family not more diſtinguiſhed by Antiquity and Rank, than by Attachment to your own Royal Houſe, and Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion; Herſelf endowed with all the Virtues and Accompliſhments which can add Grace and Dignity to the higheſt, or adorn and enoble the moſt private Station. Theſe are the moſt ſolid Foundations of Happineſs both to your Majeſty, and your Kingdoms; and leave us nothing to wiſh, but that Divine Providence would grant to your Majeſty Length of Days in an uninterrupted Courſe of Glory and Conjugal Felicity, and perpetuate the Bleſſings of your Reign, by a Race of Princes deſcended from your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, who may inherit the excellent Diſpoſitions and Principles, and emulate the Examples of their renowned Progenitors.

Dated the ninth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty one.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos Rotulorum, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the ancient City and Liberty of Peterborough.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects having always at Heart your Proſperity, Welfare and Happineſs, moſt humbly beg Leave to make a Tender of our Congratulations and Reſpects to your Majeſty on your Marriage. An Event which we truly rejoice in, as we doubt not it will add much to your Happineſs, and as it affords a pleaſing Proſpect to all true Lovers of their Country, of a Continuance from your Majeſty of a Race of illuſtrious Branches to ſupport the Religion, Liberties, and Honour of their Country, which your Majeſty and your Royal Anceſtors have ſo remarkably and ſo much to our Happineſs, made it a Rule invariably to purſue.

That your Majeſty may have a long and proſperous Reign, and that all the Comforts and Happineſs of this Life may attend your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort; and that there may be never wanting a Succeſſion of Monarchs, deſcending from your Majeſty to govern this Country, we beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty as our moſt true and ardent Wiſhes.

WE the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave, in the moſt dutiful Manner, to lay before your Majeſty the Aſſurances of our beſt Services and Obedience upon the Auſpicious Event of your Coronation. At the ſame Time permit us to offer to You our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Marriage. Theſe Occaſions muſt afford abundant Matter of Joy and Satisfaction to every True Proteſtant and Friend of Freedom, when they ſee your Majeſty ſo intent to promote, and ſo powerful to defend the Cauſe of Civil and Religious Liberty. We, indeed, who live under the Government of this moſt Excellent Conſtitution, (which your Majeſty ſeems peculiarly formed to ſupport and ſtrengthen) ſtrengthen) and are there therefore the more immediate Objects of your Royal Attention, are, as we ought to be, moſt ſenſibly affected with every Thing that can afford your Majeſty the publick and private Satisfaction, which you ſo much deſerve. It is your Majeſty's Happineſs, and ours, that your moſt Excellent Conſort ſeems to be born with a Capacity to ſhare, and with a Sweetneſs of Temper to ſooth the Cares of Government. This Diſpoſition to Affability and Benevolence will render Her the Delight and Admiration of our own, and the Envy of Foreign Nations. At the ſame Time, your Majeſty poſſeſſes the Hearts of your Subjects; and they are excited to a chearful Diſcharge of their ſeveral Duties, whilſt they behold your Majeſty's unwearied Application to the momentous Concerns of Government. But whilſt we are reflecting upon the Bleſſings we already enjoy, allow us to carry our Thoughts on to the pleaſing Proſpect of future Felicities. Upon this View we indulge the moſt reaſonable Hopes, and employ our moſt ſincere and ardent Prayers and Wiſhes, that your Majeſty, and your Illuſtrious Conſort, may, after a long and glorious Reign, leave the Inheritance of your Fame and Dominions to a numerous and long extended Line of Deſcendants that may govern theſe Kingdoms to the End of Time. In Witneſs whereof, we have hereto ſet out Hands the Sixth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-one.

We ſhould be inſenſible to our own Happineſs, if our Hearts did not exult with Joy on this intereſting Occaſion; and greatly wanting in Duty to the beſt of Sovereigns, if we did not, in great Humility, expreſs our warmeſt Wiſhes, that it may give as great Domeſtick Bliſs to your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, as it does Publick Happineſs to your Kingdoms.

May it pleaſe the Almighty to fulfil our Expectations, by bleſſing your Majeſty's Nuptials with a numerous Progeny, glorious and good as their Royal Parents; and may there never be wanting one of your Majeſty's immediate Deſcendants, to ſway the Sceptre of theſe Realms, and diſpenſe to our lateſt Poſterity, the invaluable Bleſſings we ourſelves enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt Glorious and Auſpicious Reign.

May the Almighty, by whom Kings reign, grant Length of Days, and never ceaſing Happineſs to your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, now our moſt gracious Queen; and may your Kingdoms be ever happy in having Succeſſors to the Throne of your Royal Progeny, and inherit your diſtinguiſhed Virtues: Theſe are Part of the Wiſhes and Deſires of your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

May their Union be crowned with Pledges of conjugal Love, and national Felicity, ſuch as have made your Royal Highneſs a Bleſſing to theſe Nations. That your Royal Highneſs may long live to enjoy the Fruits of your Parental Cares, and the Happineſs derived from them, is the ardent Prayer of your Royal Highneſs's faithful and devoted Servants.

UPON this joyful Occaſion, We the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, ſhould be wanting in our Duty to your Royal Highneſs, if we omitted this Opportunity of teſtifying to your Royal Highneſs the Satisfaction we feel upon His Majeſty's auſpicious Marriage.

As all the Bleſſings we enjoy, or ſhall enjoy, under His Majeſty's gentle Government, are derived as well from that exemplary Education, which He received from your Royal Highneſs; as to His own excellent Diſpoſition, your Royal Highneſs has a Right to ſhare with Him the Acknowledgements and Applauſes of His People, upon every Event that has, or ſhall hereafter ſignalize His happy Reign. In that Reſpect, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Highneſs, and pronounce you the happieſt of Mothers, who, in the Vigour of your Age, have lived already to ſee every Thing accompliſhed in your Son, that the fondeſt Parent could wiſh for their Child, or the moſt affectionate Subjects for their Sovereign.

You have ſeen Him exalted to the Throne in the Bloom of His Years; the Darling of His People; and the Terror of His Enemies; and in this glorious Situation, when nothing was wanting to conſummate His, or our Happineſs, but a worthy Partner of His Throne. Your Royal Highneſs ſees now that Circumſtance added to the reſt; and the Throne now compleatly filled with a Lady who is the Admiration of Her new Subjects. A Lady deſtined by Providence, and prepared by Her own Merit, to be exalted to this Height, where the Luſtre of a Crown will receive Addition from Her Virtues and rare Accompliſhments.

May this great Event inſure to this Nation a perpetual Succeſſion of Monarchs; and permit us to aſſure your Royal Highneſs, we ſhall always remember, with Gratitude, that Perſon, from whoſe Inſtruction and Example we have received our King; and from whom conſequently all the Bleſſings we now enjoy are principally derived.

Auguſt Son, with a Proteſtant Princeſs of a moſt illuſtrious Houſe, and of every Accompliſhment to make a Prince and his People happy.

The additional Security the Proteſtant Cauſe has received from this important Event, and the Proſpect it affords of the Permanence and Continuance of our Liberty and Conſtitutional Rights to our Poſterity, are the ſtrongeſt Proofs of His Majeſty's Prudence and paternal Care for His Subjects, and of that Royal Goodneſs and Diſpoſition ſo conſpicuous in His Majeſty, and for which we are ſo much indebted to your Royal Highneſs's Care and Cultivation in His tender Years.

May your Royal Highneſs long enjoy the dutiful Returns of the Royal Pair, and of an obliged and grateful People; and may you have the Pleaſure and Satisfaction to ſee a further Increaſe of your Royal Family from this Royal Union, in an illuſtrious Race of Princes to ſupport our Liberty, and to tranſmit that and our other Rights and Privileges to the remoteſt Generations.

Hague, Oct. 13. We have received no direct Accounts from Prince Ferdinand's Army. It is reported, that his Serene Highneſs had decamped from Williamſtahl the 1ſt of this Month, and had drawn nearer the Dymel. The French have evacuated Eaſt Frieſland.

Letters from Vienna of the 6th Inſtant ſay, that the King of Pruſſia having quitted his ſtrong Camp at Pultzen, and marched towards Neiſſe, General Laudohn had taken that Opportunity to ſurprize Schweidnitz. This Event happened early in the Morning of the 1ſt Inſtant. The Auſtrians attacked the four Outworks at once, and ſo ſuddenly, that the Garriſon had ſcarcely Time to diſcharge ſome few Cannon from the Ramparts upon them. In one of the Works, a Magazine of Powder took Fire, and blew up 300 of the Aſſailants, and as many of the Garriſon.

Having ſeized the Outworks, the Auſtrians immediately placed their Scaling Ladders againſt the Walls of the Town, forced open the Gates, and, by Day Break, were intirely Maſters of the Place, after a very ſhort Reſiſtance, and made five Battalions, conſiſting of 3000 Men, Priſoners, together with the Governor Lieutenant General Zaſtrow, and got Poſſeſſion of all the Pruſſian Artillery, and Magazines of Meal.

The Loſs on the Part of the Auſtrians was about 600 Men.

We have no News that can be depended on with reſpect to the Progreſs of the Siege of Colberg.
